Quasi judicial status of TRAI

2013. SHRI NANA DESHMUKH: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Telecom Regulatory Authority of India retaining its quasi judicial status after promulgation of the ordinance enjoys exemption from audit objection;

(b) whether the Chairmen of PSUs and CAG have raised serious objection to the aforesaid move; and

(c) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI TAPAN SIKDAR): (a) to (c) No, Sir. However, while the CAG has objected to the exclusion of the tariff setting function from audit's purview, in this connection it is pointed out that under section 23(c) of the TRAI Act 1997, the accounts of TRAI shall be audited by the CAG at such intervals as may be specified by him. This provision empowering the CAG to audit the accounts of TRAI has not been affected by the amendment to section 23(2) of the Act, which has only inserted an explanation for the removal of doubts.
